Dr. Rynne is founder of the Center for Peacemaking at Marquette University. In April, he attended the Vatican Conference that called for rejection of Catholic teaching on just war theory and invited Pope Francis to reorient the church's teaching on nonviolence.

Dr. Rynne is the author of two books:

Jesus Christ, Peacemaker: A New Theology of Peace makes Jesus and his teachings the cornerstone of both theory and practice, and offers a telling critique of just war theory.

Gandhi & Jesus: The Saving Power of Nonviolence is an insightful look at Christian nonviolence in light of Gandhi's idea of nonviolent resistance.

This event is free and open to the public

Contributions to the Marquette University Center for Peacemaking are welcome
